

5 March 2002

Published on FIDEL Soldier of Ideas (<http://www.comandanteenjefe.org>)

“The feats that our country is already capable of in the field of medicine, the enormous human capital it has developed: no other country in the world has these things. We have professionals willing to travel anywhere in the world, no matter how tough the conditions are there, and this is something no one else has.”

References to the original: Segment of the televised round table discussion of the incident at the Mexican Embassy, 5/3/2002

Source URL: <http://www.comandanteenjefe.org/en/citas/5-march-2002?height=600&width=600>