

February 13, 2011

Published on FIDEL Soldier of Ideas (<http://www.comandanteenjefe.org>)

“As a consequence of the climate change originated basically by the developed and wealthy countries, a shortage of fresh water and foods compatible with population growth at a pace that would lead to 9 billion inhabitants in a mere 30 years is being created, without the United Nations and the most influential governments on the planet, after the disappointing meeting at Copenhagen and Cancun warning and informing the world about that situation.”.

References to the original: The revolutionary rebellion in Egypt, February 13, 2011

Source URL: <http://www.comandanteenjefe.org/en/citas/february-13-2011?height=600&width=600>