

May 27, 2009

Published on FIDEL Soldier of Ideas (<http://www.comandanteenjefe.org>)

“The case of Hugo Chávez is an exceptional one in the history of politics. Others have achieved fame and celebrity through the written press, on the radio or on television, but never had a revolutionary idea made such efficient use of a communications media. In the Bolivarian Revolution’s epic struggle, if it hadn’t been for this program, imperialism and the oligarchy would have destroyed the Revolution in Venezuela with its almost absolute control of the mass media.”

References to the original: TEN YEARS TEACHING AND LEARNING, May 27, 2009

Source URL: <http://www.comandanteenjefe.org/en/citas/may-27-2009>